From Comptroller, No S/75-8 (26. 8. 19)
Submits his report on the claimants to the Vacant pension of Hire Madikeri Naik.

5) The Comptroller states that of the two petitioners, the 2nd petitioner Lingarajiah is a nearer relative of the deceased (being his paternal uncle - fathers brother) & has therefore better title to the pension than that of the 1st petnr - B.D. Madikeri Naik.

6) The Comptroller further states that in view of the deceased has left no direct descendants & both the petitioners are already in receipt of pensions, it is for the Govt. to decide whether the pension should lapse or to be continued to the nearest heir.

7) After the liberal policy of Govt. enunciated by Sir K Seshadri Iyer in 1887, these Palleyar pensions are being continued to the legal heirs.

8) There are many precedents to show that on the death of these pensioners is useless, they are divided to near relatives.

2) Kind reference is invited to notes & discussions in S/H file 64-10-12, & G.O. No 30/4.357-99 dt 22.6.1895 & GO no 140/4 dt 18.11.1878. GO no 185/4 dt 11.2.1879.

3) The original pension of Rs 60-0-4 which was drawn by the 2nd petitioner's (Linganajah) Grandfather was divided & registered in equal shares on the latter's death between the petn's father & the deceased pensioner (Hire madikeri naik) & therefore Linganajah - the 2nd petitioner ~~is the~~ should get the Vacant pension.

4) Submitted for orders.

5) As regards suspension of labour of the pension, in the absence of lineal heirs & the second collateral reference is invited to the 2 precedents, Hyp. H & W in which the question has been exhaustively discussed -

Following these cases it seems that the pensions vacated has been continued to the deserving claimant.

14) The question now for consideration is whether it shd be continued to the 1st petitioner B.D. Madakeri Naik or to the 2nd, Linganajassa, or be divided between them -

15) The first is in receipt of a pension of Rs 84-12-8, and the second of 30-0-2.

16) When Linganajassa, the grandfather of the 2nd petitioner died, the pension of 60-0-0 Rupees given was divided equally between his 2 sons & different trees.

17) The recommendation of the Khajane Baks in them was for the continuance of the whole pension in the name of the elder son, with the condition that a moiety of it shd be given to the ~~deceased~~ maintenance of his step mother and her son, the deceased

18) In view of these considerations and in accordance with the principle of division adopted in the Anegundi Paligar family case - H, so as to reduce the pensions drawn by different claimants on 31-1-98.

SIR,

With reference to your Nos. Fl.3146/S&A.46-18 and Fl.4874/S&A. 46-14 dated 2nd January and 1919 and 28th March 1919 respectively, I have the honor to report that, of the two claimants B. D. Mudikere Naik and Lingarajaiah, the latter is the grandson of one Lingarajiah who was in receipt of a pension of Rs.60-0-4 per mensem. On the death of Lingarajiah (Senior), the pension was divided between his two sons Huchuf Parasuramappa Naik and Hiremudikere Naik having died issueless, Huchuf Parasuramappa Naik's son Lingarajiah (the second of the two petitioners named above) claims the pension granted to his uncle.

The first petitioner is the son of one Katappa Naik, brother of Lingarajiah, who was in receipt of a pension of Rs.48-6-3 per mensem. It will thus be seen that the second petitioner (Lingarajiah) is a nearer relative of the deceased Hire Mudikere Naik and has therefore better title to the pension than the other (B. D. Mudikere Naik).

In view, however, of their being no direct descendents of Mudikere Naik, to whom the pension is payable, and both the petitioners being already in receipt of pensions of Rs.84-12-8 and Rs.30-0-2 sanctioned in Government Order Nos. 189-91/2 and Fl.5128/S&A.293-16 dated 6th April 1891 and 22nd December 1917 respectively, the question whether the pension should should be treated as having lapsed or any portion thereof granted to the nearest claimant has to be decided by Government.

The two petitions received from the Secretariat are herewith returned.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
